“As a litigator with 25 years’ experience pitching cases, I was skeptical about attending the Perfect Your Patent Litigation Pitch workshop. I am very glad I did. Julie Savarino reinforced certain strategies and helped me develop others. I wish I had taken this class 25 years ago! Hearing specifically what in-house want and prefer when being ‘pitched’ was incredibly helpful and provided me with many useful tools and techniques. The chance to make actual pitches to corporate counsel and get their feedback was invaluable. I strongly recommend this workshop!” Jay R. Campbell, Partner, Tucker Ellis LLP

Julie, I thoroughly enjoyed participating today and learned at least as much (if not more!) than I shared with the audience. My panel colleagues were stellar in their range and depth of experience. I have several take-aways for adjusting relationships with my outside counsel based on the ideas generated in our discussions. Thank you for including me! Best regards,
